

2016 NAIOP Developing Leaders Committee Application

The Developing Leaders (“DLs”) of the Washington State chapter of NAIOP are students and real estate professionals 35 years of age and under who are dedicated to the growth and sustainability of commercial real estate in Washington State. Through planned social, civic, and educational events the DLs share ideas, make connections, and create business opportunities.

The DL Committee (“Committee”) consists of 25-30 DL members. The Committee supports the NAIOP mission by providing a relaxed, fun and social forum for engaging young real estate professionals. Committee members are encouraged to network, begin building relationships by interacting with each other as well as industry veterans, promote the NAIOP Mission and Four Cornerstones of networking, influence, community and education (N.I.C.E.), and appreciate the benefits of a long-term career of NAIOP involvement.

The Committee meets once a month to plan and organize its annual events as well as to discuss the real estate market and professional development. Each Committee member is expected to meet the following Committee Obligations:

- Attend Committee meetings and Committee events.
- Act as either a Committee event coordinator or liaison to another NAIOP committee.
- Be an ambassador for DL membership by promoting NAIOP membership, involvement and identifying prospective members.
- Attend the annual NAIOP Community Enhancement Event

In turn, DL Committee members benefit from developing solid peer relationships and access to exclusive Committee events.

Your completion of this application is your agreement to meet the required obligations outlined above.

Please feel free to contact the Committee’s Co-Chairs with any other questions regarding the Committee.
