EXPERIENCE

As Senior Vice President with Colliers, Laura is an expert in agency leasing with over 20 years of experience. Previously, she acted as in-house office landlord representative in charge of the Benaroya Company's Class A downtown Seattle portfolio. Being a real estate syndicator and owner of commercial real estate has provided her with unique insight, particularly benefitting her landlord clients.

Laura is results-driven. The depth of her experience and her successful landlord leasing track record demonstrate her passion for excellence and strong ability to strategically position and market assets effectively.
